ELKIN AND ALLEGHANY ROAD DEAL WILL SOON BE CLOSED

President Mills, of Raleigh and Southport, Proposes to Take Road And Rush Its Completion—Only Minor Details of Deal to be Attended to.

Special to Telegram.

Raleigh, May 27.—At an adjourned conference of Governor Kitchin, the Council of State, the State Board of Internal Improvements and officers of the Elkin & Alleghany Railroad Co. this afternoon considerable progress was made toward the completion of the deal whereby President Jno. A. Mills, of the Raleigh & Southport Railroad Co., and northern interests he has interested in the undertaking will take over the Elkin & Alleghany railroad and complete it Elkin to Sparta and thence to Jefferson and the Tennessee line with a view to linking it with the Norfolk & Western.

There are a number of matters to be worked out and definitely settled before the official statement of the scope of the undertaking is given out. The deal has progressed thus far satisfactorily. The promoters of the undertaking have provided satisfactory guarantees to the governor and council of state as to the conservation of the state's interest in the road acquired by the convict labor in the grading of the twelve miles of road from Elkin toward Sparta. There are seventy four convicts at work on this grade work now and the plan of Mr. Mills and his associates is to continue these and increase the working force by employing day laborers and push the work as rapidly as possible. The contract between the State, the Elkin & Alleghany Railroad Co. and Mr. Mills and the interests he represents has been definitely settled upon so that there remains only the settlement of some minor details of the undertaking as it applies in the various counties and localities involved—matters that cannot possibly disturb the agreement that has been settled upon by the state and the railroad people.

Jones clipped off one fifth of a second from Connell's time, making the mile in 4 minutes and 15.3 seconds. Young Amherst equaled the world's quarter-mile record of 48.2 seconds. The score of points follows: Cornell 30 1-2; Yale 24 1-2; Michigan 24; Pennsylvania 18 2-3.

COMMENCEMENT AT WHITSETT COMES TO CLOSE

Special to Telegram.

Whitsett, May 27.—Commencement for this year has closed, the music has stopped, the crowds have departed, and the students have been leaving for their homes on every train this week. The week has been a notable one from every standpoint. The weather has been delightful, the crowds large for every exercise and the speakers have more than met all expectations.

Dr. W. L. Potat, president of Wake Forest College, delivered a sermon of great force and eloquence; Governor W. W. Kitchen made a literary address that has never been surpassed in the past twenty years at this place, and the alumni speaker, Mr. D. E. Hammer, of High Point, spoke with effect upon Altruism in modern life.

About two hundred members of the alumni association were here for the occasion, and plans were laid for making the work of that body a greater force during the coming year. The return of so many former students and graduates each year for the commencement exercises shows more than any other one thing the school's strong hold upon public confidence.

Many distinguished men were here, coming from different parts of the state to attend the exercises, and the school made many new friends during the days just closed.

In the very close orator's contest on the part of the senior class representatives the medal was won by H. D. Pegg, of Guilford, who spoke on International Arbitration. All the eight speeches in this contest were of a high order, but in force and timeliness the judges decided that Mr. Pegg was entitled to the prize.

Mr. Robert S. Boyce, of Gates county was chief marshal and with his skillful assistants attended to the comfort of the audience with great satisfaction. Several hundred ladies graced the occasion from day to day, coming in large numbers from Greensboro, Winston-Salem, High Point, Burlington, Graham, and all near by points.

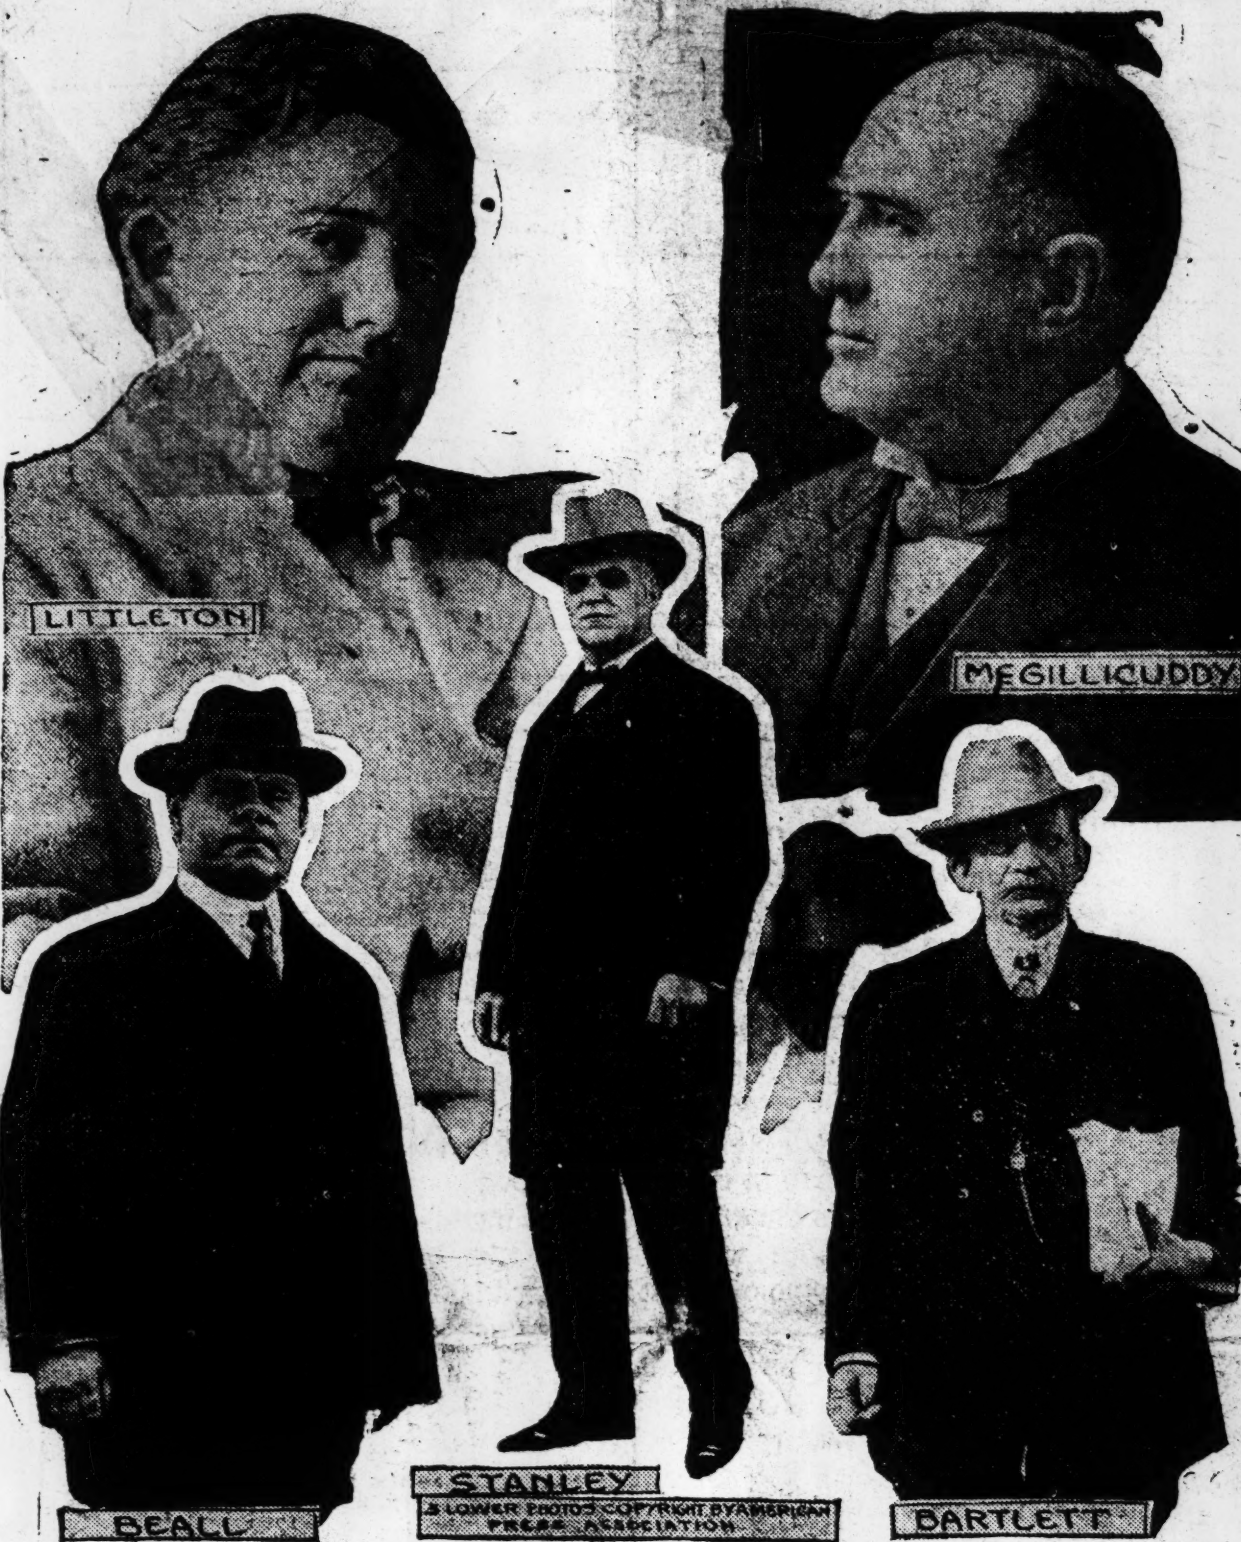

The school during the past year has had its usual number of two hundred and fifty students, with the largest graduating class it has had. These students have come from all over North Carolina, South Carolina, Virginia and Cuba and have also been represented in the student body.

Work will begin upon the school building at once, in order to make a number of needed improvements for the coming school year which will open August 30, 1911.

Two or three new residences are being placed at this time, and from every standpoint the outlook for the school is most encouraging for the future.

The present faculty will be strengthened, and the school hopes to begin the coming school year under finer prospects than ever before.

Congress Committee Will Conduct a Searching Investigation of the So Called Steel Trust.

The special committee appointed by the committee on rules of the house of representatives to investigate the steel trust is ready to begin work. The members of the committee are: Democrats—A. O. Stanley, Kentucky; Charles L. Bartlett, Georgia; Jack Beall, Texas; Martin W. Littleton, New York; Daniel McGillicuddy, Maine. Republicans—M. E. Olmstead, Pennsylvania; Olin Young, Michigan; John A. Sterling, Illinois; Henry G. Danforth, New York. The primary purpose of the inquiry is to determine whether the United States Steel corporation or other corporations or persons have violated the anti-trust act and the various interstate commerce and other acts relative to the national bank associations. The organization and operation of the steel corporation and its relations with the Pennsylvania Steel company, the Cambria Steel company, the Lackawanna Steel company, the Pennsylvania Railroad company and with coal companies, national banks, trust and insurance companies and any other interests are all to be investigated.

GATES

Says Sale of Tennessee Iron Company to Steel Trust Was Forced.

Special to Telegram.

Washington, May 27.—John W. Gates testified before the Steel investigation committee of the House that the sale of the Tennessee Coal and Iron Company to the United States Steel corporation occurred because of the fact that the committee from the New York clearing house found, as it said "too much of the securities of the Tennessee concern were in the Trust Company of America, which was at that time trying to weather a run." Gates said that Judge Gary did not care for minority stock until he told Gary that he must treat all alike. The transaction was he said, merely an exchange of securities, not a dollar changing hands.

"I regarded the sale as forced," declared Gates. "It was not done to prevent a panic, but because Morgan wanted it done."

Johnson Held For Court.

Charlie Johnson, the negro highwayman who was captured near Tabernacle church Friday, was given a hearing before Squire D. H. Collins yesterday morning. He pleaded not guilty to both the charge of highway robbery and of carrying concealed weapons. However, he was bound over to Superior Court under a bond of $100 for carrying a concealed weapon and $500 for the crime of highway robbery.

CHICAGO

Clearing House Association Puts Ban on Lorimer's Bank.

Special to Telegram.

Chicago, Ill., May 27.—A committee of the Chicago Clearing House Association held a meeting yesterday afternoon, at which it was decided to refuse to admit Senator Lorimer's LaSalle Street National Bank to the clearing house. Lorimer's announcement that he intended to take active charge of the bank management is partly responsible for the action of the clearing house committee, the clearing house requiring the active management of the bank to demonstrate its business ability before admittance. There is no doubt concerning the bank's solvency.

POPE WATCHES AVIATOR CIRCLE ST. PETER'S

Special to Telegram.

Rome, May 27.—Lieutenant Savoia, of the Italian Royal Engineers, this morning at 6:30 o'clock circled the cupola of St. Peter's three times in a Farman biplane. The Pope, about to celebrate Mass, watched the aviator from his window overlooking Court Damascus. The Pope raised his hand and pronounced a benediction, saying, "God bless him, but this is a very dangerous way of getting about."

CUMMINS

Would Have Government Fix Prices on Commercial Products.

Special to Telegram.

Washington, May 27.—Senator Cummins, addressing the graduates of the Washington Law College today, said in part: "Without a restoration of competition there are but two alternatives open to the American people.

"The first is the unregulated or unrestricted co-operation or combination and the second is a resort to the federal government to fix the price on every product that enters the channels of interstate commerce just as the rates on transportation are now fixed.

"From the latter step the next, Socialism, is inevitably certain. Out of all the seeming questions confronting the American people this one will present itself for adjustment. Its settlement will determine whether the United States shall continue to be a free and independent nation or wrecked by a bloody revolution."

The Camp Meeting.

Services will be held at the tent on Teague field this morning at 11 o'clock, afternoon at 3 o'clock and tonight at 7:45 o'clock. Rev. L. B. Compton will do the preaching. The tent was blown down Friday afternoon, but was replaced yesterday and services held last night, at which time Rev. Compton preached from the text, Proverbs 20:27. The public is cordially invited to attend all services.

CONEY ISLAND FIRE ENTAILS LOSS OF ABOUT $3,000,000

Special to Telegram.

New York, May 27.—A three million dollar fire early today wiped the beautiful dreamland off the map. The fire started in the "Hellgate," one of the Coney Island shows. No human lives were lost but nearly a hundred animals of the Ferraris animal show were burned to death. A lion, tiger, leopard and baboon were killed just outside the enclosure.

The water pressure was very low, else the flames would have been confined to dreamland, instead of spreading over the entire district.

The entire area between West Fifth, West Tenth streets and surf avenue and the beach was devastated. It was probably the most spectacular fire New York has ever seen, screaming lions, leopards, wolves, etc., rushing around in the glare of the flames. Animal trainers were herding wild beasts or shooting them. Nurses were risking their lives to rescue the tiny babies fighting for life in the incubator cages.

Many persons lost all their property and thousands are thrown out of work at the beginning of the season. Hellgate workmen discovered the fire and tried to fight it alone instead of giving the alarm at once.

SMITH TRUE TO EACH OF FIVE WIVES

Special to Telegram.

Salt Lake City, May 27.—J. F. Smith, head of the Mormon church, is quoted as saying "For myself I believe in being true to my five wives, loyal, loving, contented, happy mothers. They have been my wives for twenty-seven to forty year and I have held my love and duty to them above all things else."

FIGHT IS ON FOR POSTMASTERSHIP IN WILMINGTON

Butler-Morehead Man Lined Up Against Duncan Supporter—City Budget For Fiscal Year About Same as Last Year—Wrightsville Beach Season Opens.

Special to Telegram.

Wilmington, May 27.—Postmaster Thos. E. Wallace, of this city, who has held the position for several years, is to have opposition for reappointment by Mr. W. S. Clayton, a very capable young man, who holds a position in the United States Customs House, and who is supposed to be allied with the Butler-Morehead faction of the Republican party in North Carolina as against the Duncan faction, supported in the last campaign by Postmaster Wallace. Petitions in behalf of the candidacy of Mr. Clayton have been circulated among the business men for the past few days and largely signed. It looks as if he will be a very formidable candidate against Mr. Wallace, who has made a most satisfactory and efficient postmaster.

Wrightsville Beach will open formally for the season of 1911 within less than a week and it is confidently expected that the season will be the greatest in the history of the resort. There will not be as many notable gatherings on the beach this year as last year, but judging from the reservations already made at the hotels the crowds will even be larger. Mr. Edgar L. Hinton, the popular manager of the Seashore Hotel, has already received more reservations than ever before known at this season of the year.

The city budget for the fiscal year beginning June 1st has been practically decided upon by the Council and it is estimated that it will take about the same amount as the present fiscal year to run the city government for the year. The expenditure the present fiscal year amounts to about $226,000. The budget as arranged for this fiscal year provides for increases in some departments and decreases in others, but the total will remain about the same as last year. There will be a slight increase in the police department, which last year cost $35,000, while the fire department will remain about the same.

LABOR WANTED FOR SOUTH ATLANTIC R. R.

Special to Telegram.

Raleigh, May 27.—The promoters of the proposed South Atlantic transcontinental railroad from the Tennessee coal fields through Knoxville, Waynesville, Asheville and Rutherfordton to Southport had a hearing this afternoon before the Governor and Council of State on the question of procuring convicts. Gen. Theo. F. Davidson, W. E. Breese, C. J. L. Lantry, the latter of Chicago, presented a proposition, in which they represented to state officials that there is now available eleven million dollars of French capital to go into this enterprise. There will be another conference during the coming week before a definite announcement as to the availability of state convicts for work will be made.

EMPLOYEES MUST SHAVE SAYS HAGGINS

Special to Telegram.

Lexington, Ky., May 27.—J. B. Haggins, owner of Elmdorf Stock farm, today posted notices requiring the several hundred employees of the nine thousand acre farm to be shaved on alternate days. A barber shop is being installed, also a bath room, lavatory, etc., both to be free to employees. Mr. Haggins believes that whiskers propagate dangerous microbes and his order is meant to apply particularly to the employees of the dairy department.

After all it might have been a good plan to try the recall on Arizona. Get you boosting clothes on and get under the new railroad movement.

Perhaps the lumber trust's ability for log rolling is natural. It is right in line with the lumber trust's business.

Diaz has gone and Mexico has a new President, but will Mexico have peace under the new regime?

The tobacco trust is awaiting the next decision of the United States Supreme court in a most cheerful mood.

The hot wave is hot enough. Let the appearance of the political hot wave be postponed until next year.

Greensboro will lead the movement to build the new railroad and that Greensboro will lead it successfully is a certainty.

Wilson's winning of the West is doubtless a cause of considerable uneasiness in the camp of Governor Judson Harmon.

The uncertainties of peace in Mexico will furnish food for contemplation for those who are disposed to dwell upon the uncertainties of life.

Despite the fact that peace is said to reign in Mexico, there will probably be a few opportunities in the future for innocent bystanders to follow up their recent successes on the border.

The new railroad will give Going, Growing, Greater Greensboro a big boost. That is reason enough to put every progressive citizen of this city behind the movement.

Up in Baltimore individuals are discussing what they would do if they owned the city. If the editor of the Wilmington Dispatch owned the city in which he resides he would sell it and buy Wrightsville Beach.

New Jersey Legislature proposes to deduct a month's salary from Governor Wilson's pay, to cover the time he is absent on his western tour. New Jersey Legislature must be trying to win a reputation for economy in competition with our Democratic Congress.

The Democrats in Congress show a disposition to do something for the relief of the country, but the Republicans in the Senate manifest no change of heart. Therefore, it is dawning upon the country that a Democratic majority in the Senate and a Democratic President are necessary.

The Madison Herald announces that it will quit talking politics during the heated term and will refrain until autumn. A similar decision for a number of other newspapers of the country would be in line with the dictates of wisdom.

Perhaps the public wonders what the newspapers will find to fill space with now that most of the commencements are over. The newspaper men are not worrying, however. The Lorimer case remains unsettled and the United States army is still camping on the Mexican border.

Apparently the number of flies in this city has not been appreciably reduced. More strenuous measures will have to be adopted, both by the city and by individuals. Fight the flies day by day, but remember that the best plan for fighting the pests is to keep the city clean and to do away with the causes responsible for the flies.

Beyond Burlington and Graham there is a large and fertile territory which ought to be brought into business contact with this city. There is no finer country in North Carolina and no section where a railroad is needed more for the development of natural resources. It will pay Greensboro to get in touch with that section and that country to get in touch with this city.

It is not believed the labors of the dove of peace have ended in Mexico. Those familiar with conditions in that country and with the characteristics of the inhabitants are fully aware of the fact that some man with the capacity and the energy and the courage and iron of Diaz will have to take charge of affairs in Mexico to preserve order, to prevent constant uprisings and a state bordering on anarchy.

The new railroad will pay. That is the opinion of the best business men in this city and all along the line to Henderson. It will also pay Greensboro and it will pay Roxboro, Oxford and Henderson and the people of the entire section between this place and the last named town. A proposition that will be profitable for everybody interested in it or affected by it ought to appeal to all the people of the section of country to be reached by the proposed road.

A Real Giant.

North Carolina is so given to claims that many put little faith in any that are advanced by that state now. This may be unjust, however, for the state has some things worth claiming. The Advance, a weekly paper published at North Wilkesboro, N. C., makes a claim this week that is probably a true one, there being no evidence to the contrary. It is that in Wilkes county there is an apple tree that is sixteen feet and five inches in circumference. It is believed to be the largest apple tree in the world and pretty surely in the United States.

Says the North Carolina paper about the tree:

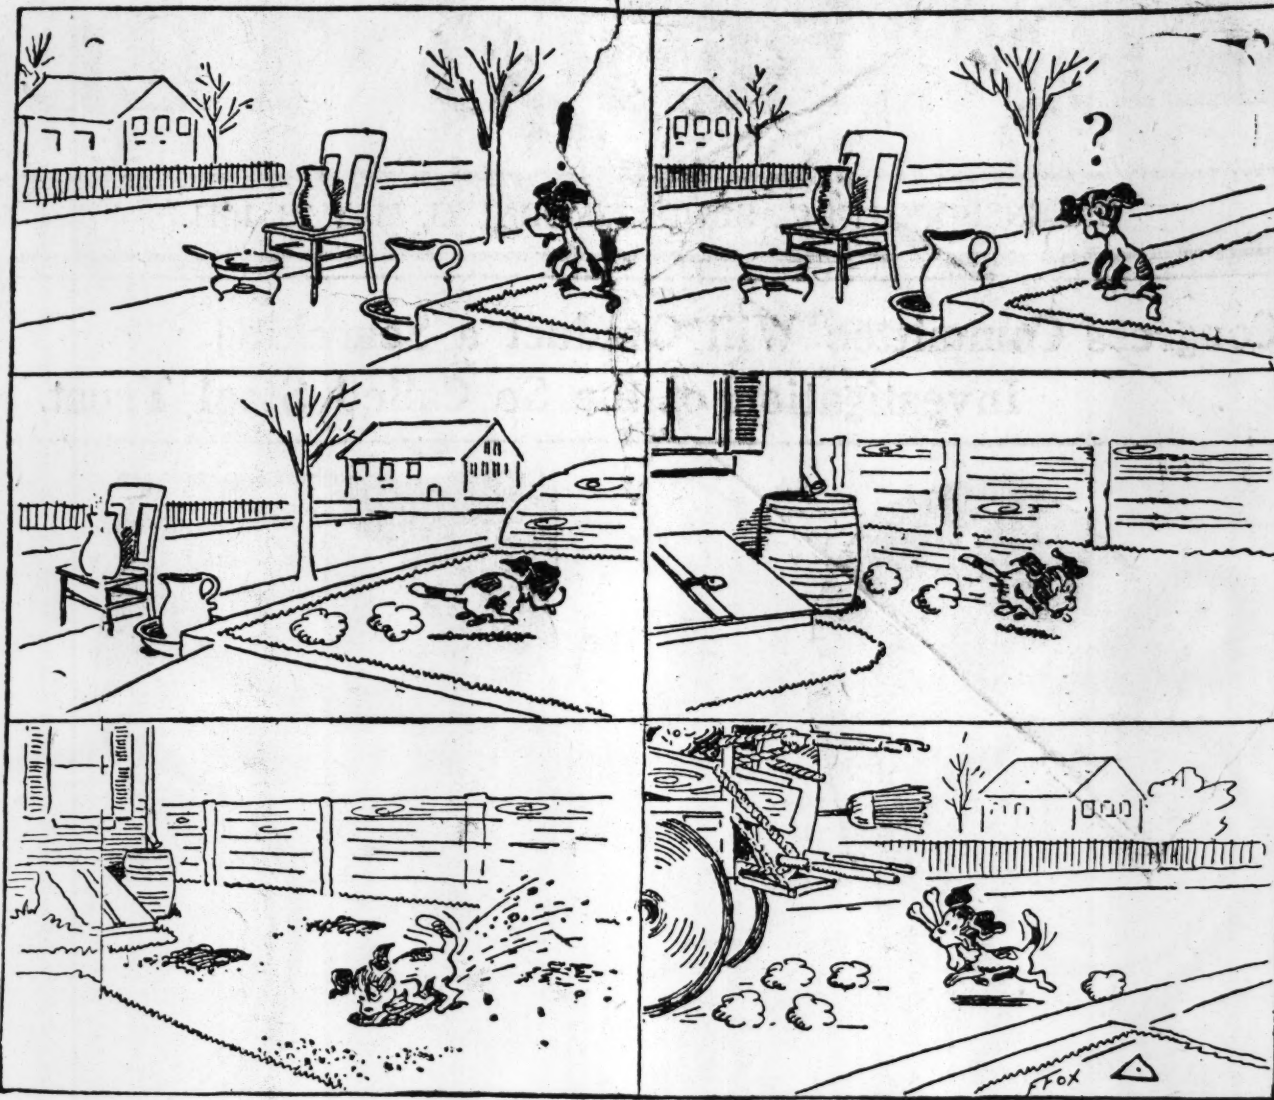

That conditions here are favorable to the natural growth and development of orchards is no longer a question, and one undisputed proof of the fact has just been discovered. It is in the form of what is believed to be the largest apple tree in the world—certainly the largest in the United States. It is known to be over 100 years old; may be 150, certainly it was a large tree 90 years ago, for Newton Gentry of Traphill, Wilkes county, N. C., knows that his grandfather, Jim Fields, killed a deer near it about 1820 and hung it on a limb of this tree out of reach of wolves while he continued his hunt. Mr. Gentry says he has been using fruit off of this tree for 60 years. W. A. Johnson of the same place, says the tree looked about as large 50 years ago as it does now. These two men saw it measured April 24, 1911, and it is 16 feet five inches in circumference at the ground, 12 feet six inches in circumference just below first limbs, which makes it five feet five inches in diameter at the ground and four feet two inches at the first limb, eight feet five inches on the floor or ground and see what an enormous tree this is! Several men could stand on this tree stump at one time. If it was hollow and lying down an ordinary cow could walk through it lengthwise and not touch her back and sides! This tree was recently pruned for the first time and is now growing a luxurious growth of new lap, which is blooming and promises a full crop this year. Before the big limbs were cut the spread was about 62 feet. The trunk is apparently sound. The variety is unknown but the natives call it the "Rich Apple" because the color is a rich, yellow-red striped and the flavor rich. The fruit matures in September and keeps until late fall, and is of medium size. Mr. Gentry says six generations of his family have enjoyed the fruit off of this tree. It blooms every year, or at least for the last 60 years, which is as long as Mr. Gentry can remember, and seldom fails to bear a heavy crop.

The apples of the tree, it is said, are to be perpetuated under the name of the people who now own the tree, Hortons. This is certainly a most wonderful tree and is well worth the publicity that is being given it now.—Greenville, S. C., Piedmont.

Nothing Further Required. "Jones doesn't have to buy coal." "He's lucky. Does the coal trust subsidize him that way?" "No." "How does it happen then?" "He is so full of hot air himself that whenever they want heat they just turn him on."

PUP DISCOVERS THAT IT'S MOVING DAY.

MEXICO'S NEW HEAD.

De La Barra Widely Known—Has Served His Country In Many Important Diplomatic Posts.

The rise of Frisco Leon de la Barra, provisional President of Mexico, has filled many diplomatic posts, but there is probably no man in Mexico today with a more thorough knowledge of its internal affairs. As Ambassador of Washington he made many friends in this country.

Senor De la Barra was born June 16, 1863. He received his academic and special education at the college of the City of Mexico. Upon the completion of his studies he took up law and was admitted to the bar. He made a specialty of international law and entered the Foreign Affairs Office. His first important work came when he was appointed to negotiate various treaties with foreign powers. Among those arranged by him was one of commerce and navigation with Holland and extradition with Italy.

He gained a seat in the Federal Congress in 1891 and remained there until 1896. He was sent by his Government as delegate of the Academy of Legislation and Jurisprudence to the Ibero-American Congress in Madrid in 1892. As president of the international law committee of the Pan-American Congress, which met in Mexico City in 1901, he took a prominent part in its doings and was leading advocate of the measure for the compulsory adjustment of pecuniary claims.

The Mexican Government sent him to the Pan-American Congress held in Rio Janeiro in 1906. There he met the delegates of the United States, including Elihu Root, then Secretary of State, and other men who have taken their part in the direction of affairs in this country. A year later he was sent to the peace conference at The Hague.

It was perhaps as envoy to all the republics on the Atlantic Coast of South America that he best grasped the Latin-American situation. He lived some time in the various capitals of the east coast, particularly Rio Janeiro and Buenos Ayers. His next assignment was as representative of his country to Belgium and the Netherlands. He came to Washington in 1909 as Mexican Ambassador. He remained there until the latter part of March, when he was called home to become Minister of Foreign Affairs in President Diaz's Cabinet.

He returned to the troubled capital of his country declaring his faith in the loyalty and common sense of his countrymen as a whole and confident that peace would soon be restored. Senator De la Barra's ability as international lawyer is recognized, and only by his own Government but by other Governments. He is a man of pleasing address and cordiality of manner, speaking English and French as fluently as he does his own language.—New York Times.

Advertising

Talks
H. G. B.

It is "THE MAN BEHIND THE GUN" in advertising as well as in everything else. Advertising in some newspapers is worth a great deal more than in other newspapers, just as the service of some men is more valuable than that of some others. Character is just as essential for a newspaper as for an individual. Of course, it is well known that all business enterprises reflect to a more or less degree the character of the personnel of those moulding the business policy. The newspaper that lacks character is of very little value as an advertising medium for those enterprises which are reputable and which themselves possess character.

IN GREENSBORO THE TELEGRAM represents the best THOUGHT and CHARACTER, because it is in accord with the sentiment of the best people of this community. Advertisements in THE TELEGRAM have the prestige of the newspaper of RECOGNIZED CHARACTER and INFLUENCE.

Chance for Science.

There is nothing so baffling as baldness. It comes unbidden, and it spreads like a rumor in a country village. The doctors or the police cannot stop it.

Oceans of lotions feed it and bid it speed. And yet science some day fooling around with its microscope will find the cause and show how to lose the bald spot.

When that happy day arrives the man who was bald, but recovered, will feel that he is missing some of the joy of living if his wife doesn't pull his hair every day.

But that will not be all for the microscope that does the deed. Being trained and under command of the man who says "Whoa!" it will be set to work to remove whiskers painlessly. Man will get a bottle, rub it on his chin, and the poor barber will think that something worse than a safety razor has hit him.

Give Him a Chance.

"I don't know what is the matter with my husband." "What is the matter?" "He hasn't spoken to me for ten days." "That ought to be easily remedied." "But how?" "Try him with ten minutes of silence."

THE PRESS CONVENTION.

Lenoir, June 27 and 28, to Be Followed By a Delightful Mountain Trip.

The next annual meeting of the Press Association will be held in Lenoir Tuesday and Wednesday, June 27 and 28, and will be followed by a mountain excursion.

The business sessions of the Association will be held in Lenoir on Tuesday and Wednesday, June 27 and 28. The people of Lenoir will provide some excellent entertainment for the afternoon and evening of these two days. On Tuesday and Friday the editorial party will be taken on an excursion to Blowing Rock, Boone and Linville, and through the famous Wilson Creek gorge on the C. & N. W. railroad. This will be one of the most delightful outings the editors have ever enjoyed. The exact itinerary of this trip will be announced later.

The railroads of the State will grant the usual exchange of transportation for advertising to all members of the association and one dependent member of the family of each.

The Southern Railway will provide a special car for the use of the editors from Raleigh to Hickory, on June 26, and the C. & N. W. Railroad will take this car, on its arrival at Hickory to Lenoir by special engine.

The headquarters of the association will be at Davenport College, where from 80 to 100 can be accommodated. The rate there will be $1.50 a day. The Carlheim, the new hotel at Lenoir, can accommodate 20 to 25. There are also two other houses which will make a rate of $1.00 per day.

Although the program for the meeting is not complete, President Shipman announces some of the speakers as follows:

President W. P. Few, of Trinity College, on "The Newspaper and Public Opinion."

W. C. Dowd, of Charlotte, "Best Method of Securing and Retaining Local Advertising."

Dr. Joseph Hyde Pratt, state geologist, on "State Supervision of Public Roads."

Dr. John A. Ferrell, state director of the hookworm campaign, on "The Result to be Derived From the Success of the Hookworm Campaign."

Mr. Wade Harris, of Charlotte, on "Cash Basis of the Newspaper."

Mr. J. J. Farris, of High Point, on "The Open Door."

Dr. W. L. Poteat, president of Wake Forest College, on "The Liberty of the Press."

The membership of the Press Association now numbers about 150. The editors and publishers of nearly all the leading publications in the state are members of the association, and the few who have not yet joined should do so at once. Send for blank application for membership. The initiation fee is $5.00, which includes first year's dues.

J. B. SHERRILL, Secretary.
Concord, N. C., May 26, 1911.

Bad Case.

"Why do you borrow trouble?" "Don't you know?" "Looks foolish to me." "It is because I can't borrow money."

Yes, he is a brave man.

"What has he ever done to show his bravery?" "He made faces at his mother-in-law." "I suppose she was in the next room at the time." "No; in the next county."

REALLY GREAT MAN.

Diaz Tamed Tempestuous Island Into Peace and Order.

Porfirio Diaz has resigned, after serving 34 years as President of Mexico. A sick old man puts off the battered armor that he has worn in innumerable battles—puts it off not because he is sick and old—although he is in his 81st year—and not because his lion heart has wavered or weakened, but because he is convinced that such renunciation is the best offering to Mexico that is left for him to make.

This tempestuous land was tamed into peace and order by the strong, temperate hand and patriotic mind of Diaz. He was a brave soldier, a splendid fighter and then a great administrator. No living statesman has done so much for his native country. For more than a generation Diaz was Mexico, and Mexico was Diaz. He created its nationality—and gave it a place among the political powers of the world. Of him it may be said, much more truly than it was said of Alexander Hamilton: "He touched the dead corpse of the public credit and it sprang upon its feet."

He found Mexico poor and made it rich. He found it weak and made it strong. He found it half-barbarous and made it an acknowledged sister of the enlightened nations.

It was the hand of Diaz that forged the very weapons with which he is now assailed.

This son of innkeeper who built a State by the energy of his own will sees that State now rent and torn by a confused revolution—of which no man can with certainty foresee the end.

But in the midst of the uncertainties of the future, at least one thing is sure: It is sure as the inflexible law of history—which at last assesses every great man at his true value—that the traveler in a regenerated Mexico in the generations to come will find every city a monument of the giant who smote the barbarism of Mexico and led his country through the doors of civilization.—New York American.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease and therefore requires constitutional treatment.

Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address: F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, Ohio. Sold by Druggists, 75c. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

SUGGESTIVE QUESTIONS

On the Sunday School Lesson by Rev. Dr. Linscott for the International Press Bible Question Club.

(Copyright 1910 by Rev. T. S. Linscott, D.D.)

May 28th, 1911.

(Copyright, 1910, by Rev. T. S. Linscott, D.D.)
Micah's Picture of Universal Peace.
(An International Peace Lesson.)
Micah iv:1-5.

Golden Text—Nation shall not lift up a sword against nation, neither shall they learn war any more. Micah iv:3.

(1.) Verse 1—What are your ideas concerning the millennium?

(2.) What institution to-day stands as a mountain above every other institution?

(3.) When will Christianity probably sway the hearts of the nations, so that their beneficent laws will dominate them?

(4.) What are the influences at work to-day which make for the Christianization of the nation?

(5.) Verse 2—What can churches and individuals do more than they are doing, to make the nations of the earth Christian?

(6.) Verse 3—When will nations begin "to beat their swords into plowshares, and their spears into pruning hooks?"

(7.) There probably never was a time when the civilized nations were spending as much money on their armies and navies as now, or were more thoroughly prepared for war, what does this indicate as to the coming of universal peace?

(8.) What is probably the cost per annum of (1) the standing armies, (2) the navies of the civilized nations?

(9.) If fifty per cent of the vast sum spent in preparation for war were spent in educating the nations in the folly of war, and in the sufficiency of arbitration to settle disputes, how many years would it take to accomplish?

(10.) What would be the effect if the universities of the world were to establish chairs for teaching the folly of war, and the morality, and economics of peace?

(11.) When did you last listen to a sermon from your pastor on the crime and folly of war?

(12.) To what extent is the Christian church responsible for the present insane preparation for war?

(13.) If Jesus were now in the flesh and addressed public gatherings, what would he probably say about present day war preparations? (This is one of the questions which may be answered in writing by members of the club.)

(14.) Verses 4-5—If the nations of the earth were to disarm and make a treaty of perpetual peace, what would be its economic, its social, and ethical effect?

(15.) What effect would perpetual peace have upon the evangelization of the world?

(16.) What can we do more, to arouse the average man to a realization of the stupendous folly and crime of war?

Saved Child From Death.

"After our child had suffered from severe bronchial trouble for a year," wrote G. T. Richardson, of Richardson's Mills, Ala., "we feared it had consumption. It had a bad cough all the time. We tried many remedies without avail, and doctor's medicine seemed as useless. Finally we tried Dr. King's New Discovery, and are pleased to say that one bottle effected a complete cure, and our child is again strong and healthy." For coughs, colds, hoarseness, lagrippe, asthma, croup and sore lungs, its most infallible remedy that's made. Price 50c. and $1.00. Trial bottle free. Guaranteed by Farris-Klutzn Drug Co.

BIBLE STUDY CONTEST—GOLD AND SILVER MEDALS.

In three weeks from today a very important Bible Study contest starts in connection with the Telegram. Most, if not all, of our readers are aware of its importance, and its conditions, and this is simply "to stir up your minds by way of remembrance."

The International Press Bible Question Club is divided into four classes, composed of newspapers which join the Club during any given year. They are known as Class A, Class B, Class C, and Class D. The classes are numbered according to the quarter of the year in which they join. There will be given away as prizes to each class, to first five contestants, five solid Gold Medals; to the next five contestants, five sterling Silver Medals; to the next five contestants, five Teachers' Bibles, price $5.50 each, and to the next thirty-five contestants, thirty-five copies of the book, "The Heart of Christianity," price $1.50 each. A beautifully engraved Diploma will be given to all who complete the course. The conditions of the contest are that, commencing with the lesson for Sunday, June 18, (1) A coupon should be cut out of this paper for 52 consecutive weeks, certifying that the lesson has been read, together with the "Suggestive Questions" based upon the same; (2) Any five of the questions, that are indicated to be answered in writing, must be so answered. (3) Must deliver to this office within one week after the close of the 52 weeks' period all the coupons which have been cut out and signed, together with the five written answers. The prizes will then be awarded, in order, to those who deliver to any newspaper office in the class, the greatest number of coupons. The ties will be broken by an impartial examination of the written answers, and the prizes will go to those who have the highest number of marks.

Each contestant will need the Telegram so as to read the questions and get the coupon. Send in your order on the attached coupon.

THOMAS F. RYAN'S ILLNESS CAUSES NO LITTLE SURPRISE

Special to Telegram.

New York, May 27.—Thomas F. Ryan, the traction magnate, is seriously ill at his home here. Wednesday he had a surgical operation performed and his condition is still critical, though it is given out that he is "doing nicely." It is planned to remove him to the cooler climate of England as soon as he is able to make the trip across the Atlantic.

Ryan's illness has caused great surprise in Wall street. His family has made extraordinary efforts to keep it secret and his employees have all along denied all knowledge of his condition. He was stricken with illness a week ago in Virginia and was rushed here secretly on a special train.

Dr. George David Stewart performed the operation for Mr. Ryan. His trouble is believed to be caused by kidney disease. Ryan is one of the richest men in the world. His wealth is estimated at two hundred and twenty-five million dollars. He is the virtual owner of the tobacco trust, otherwise the American Tobacco Company.

Foley's Kidney Remedy Acted Quickly. M. N. George, Irondale, Ala., was bothered with kidney trouble for many years. "I was persuaded to try Foley's Kidney Remedy, and before taking it three days I could feel its beneficial effects. The pain left my back, my kidney action cleared up, and I am so much better I do not hesitate to recommend Foley's Kidney Remedy." For Sale by Howard Gardner.

SUGAR

Trust Will be Fought
With Free Trade
Methods.

New York, May 27.—A fight is on to attempt to kill the sugar trust with free trade. The Speckles interests are said to be leading the fight and the big grocerymen of the country are interested. Literature is being sent into every Congressional district in the United States by this combination, it is said, and the gist of the argument is that protection is no longer needed for the sugar industry and that the consumers are carrying a dead weight in the tariff on sugar.

This fight appears to have been systematically planned and to be well organized and it is believed it will prove effective in securing repeal of the tariff on sugar products.

DAILY MARKET REPORTS

WEATHER FORECAST.

Georgia, North and South Carolina, generally fair Sunday; moderate north-east and east winds.

Alabama, Mississippi, generally fair Sunday; light variable winds.

NEW ORLEANS COTTON.

New Orleans, May 27.—Cotton futures opened steady 1 to 3 points up on the old crop months and unchanged on the new. Cables were somewhat better than expected on the old crops but not quite as good on the new. The weather map was called favorable since it showed rains in Oklahoma, the Carolinas and northern part of Texas where complaints of drought have been made of late. Week end covering by shorts gave the market strength around the opening and the list was put one to four points up. A little later the effect of the weather map began to be felt and at the end of the first half months were 2 to 3 points down.

The market closed very steady with prices net 7 points lower to 7 points higher.

Around the middle of the morning longs offered the ring considerable cotton and gossip was that some of the large bull interests were selling under cover. The weather forecast called for unsettled weather and showers over Sunday in the western half of the belt and fair weather in the eastern half. This increased the selling. Showers are the thing most desired and as the ring interpreted the map the unsettled weather is due to get in the eastern belt by Sunday night. At the lowest of the morning the list was 4 to 7 points under yesterday's last prices. The close was steady 3 points up to 2 down compared with yesterday's close.

NORTH STATE CAPITAL NEWS

Special to Telegram.

Raleigh, May 27.—There has just been completed and put in the window of a local jeweler here the massive loving cup that the city of Raleigh offered for the athletic team of a North Carolina College making the best scores in inter-collegiate contests from year to year. The first contest was held here April 17 when the team from the University of North Carolina won for the first year. It is an especially handsome solid silver cup that stands 20 inches with ebony pedestal and is surmounted with a cover that bears the figure of a runner. The decoration consists chiefly of leaves and berries as wreaths. It has splendid reproductions of the great seal of the state on two sides just over the engravings. It is to go to the college making the highest score each year until some college wins three times in succession when the cup becomes the property of that college permanently.

News was received here this morning that during the big storm that swept this section last evening a leaf tobacco storage house that contained $10,000 worth of tobacco, the property of E. T. Atkinson, at Apex, was demolished and almost a total loss entailed. The Baptist church at Fuquay Springs was badly damaged. Lands were badly washed throughout this section. However the rain ended a long drought that threatened disaster to the crops generally and rapid development of crops generally will result.

The Corporation Commission is to apply at once to the courts for a receiver for The Merchants & Farmer's Bank, of Columbia, Tyrrell county, that has been in a bad way for some time, having its affairs brought to a head Monday through the suicide of its cashier, R. H. Spruill. In the meantime State Bank Examiner has returned to Columbia and taken charge of the bank to hold the assets until a receiver can relieve him. Something like a month ago Examiner Doughton made a thorough examination of the bank and made such a report of unsatisfactory conditions that the Corporation Commission notified the directors that they must improve conditions within thirty days else the bank must close. It was developments in this direction that brought about the suicide.

The fire that visited St. Agnes Hospital, out at St. Augustine School, last night during the storm, was in many respects the most remarkable Raleigh has ever known. A crossed circuit in some way turned the entire 6,000 voltages of the Milburne power plant into the building after the fire had been in progress a little while and fire-fighters were unable to throw water on the flames because the water formed a circuit, several fire-fighters being severely shocked before the trouble was located and steps taken to cut the circuit. The hospital building, which is badly damaged, was recently completed at a cost of $40,000 and is of stone quarried close by the institution by the negro students. At one time last night right after the storm there were five hundred telephones out of commission through wreckage of the wire system. However practically all the damage was repaired by noon today.

The Supreme Court delivered today opinions in six appeals and expects to complete deliveries ready for final adjournment by Monday. The list just delivered follows:

Brown Carriage Co., vs. Dowd, Mecklenburg, no error.

State vs. Smith and Lyles, Polk, new trial.

Gazzan vs. German Union Fire Insurance Co., Buncombe, no error.

Wright vs. Southern Railway Co., Buncombe, affirmed.

Lanning vs. Western Union Telegraph Co., Swain, new trial.

Henry Stewart vs. Cassie Stewart, Macon, no error.

COMMISSIONER BROWN IS CONSIDERING THE DUST PROBLEM

The problem of keeping the dust off the business streets of the city is causing Commissioner Brown to do some hard thinking at present. Heretofore only Elm and Davis streets have been sprinkled and the dust would be blown off the side streets so rapidly that it was impossible to keep the dust down. Now a district has been mapped out and the side streets will be sprinkled as well as the principal thoroughfares, thus cutting off the dust avenues. This will cost something like $5 per day, the city owning the sprinklers. If the job is contracted for the cost will doubtless be higher, but this will hardly be done.

The Southern Railway has arranged for the accommodation of those desiring to attend commencement at Chapel Hill to operate trains Sunday 28th on regular week day schedule between University and Chapel Hill; this branch train will also make extra trip on Monday and Tuesday in order to connect with No. 144 leaving Greensboro at 9:40 a. m. Low rate round trip tickets are also on sale.

LITTLE GIRL PAINFULLY HURT.

The little four-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Pinnix was rather painfully hurt by no means dangerously hurt on South Elm street yesterday afternoon about 3 o'clock. Mrs. Pinnix and the little girl were on the street together but when almost in front of the Grissom-Sykes Drug Store the child attempted to cross the street alone. A Columbia Steam Laundry delivery wagon struck the little girl to the pavement and she was badly injured about the head and face. The child was carried into the drug store and physicians after examining the wounds stated that no bones were thought to be broken and while very painful the injuries could not be considered particularly serious.

Washington, D. Y. W. C. A. Notes.

Next Friday evening at 8 o'clock at the Y. W. C. A. rooms, the members of the Y. W. C. A. embroidery class will be hostesses to the members of the association, the occasion being the regular quarterly meeting of the association. After a business session, which will include interesting reports of the work of the past 3 months and echoes of the recent National convention of the Y. W. C. A., there will be an informal social hour in charge of the embroidery class. This class, under Mrs. J. J. Stone, and Mrs. G. W. Whitsett, has done much excellent work this year in embroidery, stencilling, pierced brass, etc., and some of this work will be on exhibition Friday night. All members of the association are urged to be present and all friends are invited.

Hundreds of Y. W. C. A. members throughout the Southern states are looking forward eagerly to the 17th annual Southern Conference which will be held at Asheville, June 9th to 19th. This conference is a combination of intellectual feast, spirited inspiration, and delightful vacation. Among the speakers this year will be Dr. Robert E. Speer, of New York; Dr. Ira Landreth, President of Belmont College; the Rt. Rev. Thomas F. Gailor, bishop of Tennessee, and others. Besides a number of the National Secretaries, the conference will be favored in having as its guests Mrs. J. H. Tritton, of London, president of the World's Y. W. C. A., and members of the World's committee representing Great Britain, Japan, Germany and France.

The afternoons will be given over to recreation for which Asheville offers such delightful facilities. There will be drives over the lovely Vanderbilt estate and others equally beautiful and athletic sports will be organized for the pleasure of the delegates. The headquarters for the conference will be the Normal and Collegiate Institute. The expense for delegates will be $5.00 for program fee and $15 for room and board, beside railroad fare. The special rate for the round trip from Greensboro is $5.55. It is hoped that a number of the Greensboro association members will avail themselves of this delightful opportunity. All planning to do so are requested to communicate with the General Secretary of the local association.

The Y. W. C. A. Millinery class has completed a successful six weeks' course. The members have trimmed their own hats in a manner which would do credit to a professional. A course is now offered in the making of lingerie hats. All who wish to learn to make their summer hats are asked to register at the association office not later than Thursday, June 1.

THE PROPOSED NEW DORMITORY OF GREENSBORO FEMALE COLLEGE

The above cut shows the proposed new dormitory of Greensboro Female College. The contract for this building has been let, but the work will not be begun until the funds for the building are in sight or at least half of them are. The subscriptions are being received almost daily and the building committee hopes that a sufficient amount will soon be in hand so that the contractors can begin work.

However, the new dormitory cannot be completed before the spring term

1912 and for another term, at least, the work of the institution will be hampered because of lack of room. During the past term there were 140 boarding students at the college and about 90 day students. Scores had to be turned down on account of lack of room. With the new dormitory in commission between 175 and 200 students could be accommodated in the dormitories, while about a hundred day students could be accommodated, increasing the enrollment of the college to something like 300. Even with the increased dormitory space it is doubtful if the college could accommodate all the young ladies applying for entrance.

The new dormitory, as is shown by the cut, will be two stories in height. It will contain 36 large airy rooms, fitted up in modern style. The cost of the dormitory, furnished and ready for occupancy, will be $25,000, and the college trustees hope to secure this amount by the following plan:

Ten churches and ten individuals in each Conference to build a room at a cost of $500 each. The remaining $5,000 to be secured in small contributions from a number of people. The name of the individual or church building a room will be placed on the door of the room so that students may know whose generosity thoughtfully provided facilities for their education.

The following have agreed to build a room:

GAS WELL BURNS NEARLY FIVE YEARS.

The Extinguishing of Texas Blazer is Accomplished By Boring.

Fitzpatrick, Texas, May 26.—No more will the spectacular light of the burning gas well in the Caddo field, just over the line in Louisiana, six miles east of here, illuminate this region. For nearly five years this great gas well ran wild, and the blaze from it towered into the heavens, a veritable pillar of fire. The final extinguishing of the flames was accomplished by boring relief wells in the territory adjacent to the well.

Some idea of the size of the column of flame that came from the well may be had when it is stated that the original output was more than five million feet of gas a day, and that with the blowouts that occurred after the gas caught fire the sizes of the hole was increased enormously and the output probably more than doubled. It is said to have been the greatest gas well in the world. It was such a curiosity that the railroads ran excursions to the locality for several months in order to accommodate the people who wanted to witness the sight.

The well was bought in February,

1906, and was connected with a pipe line that supplied the city of Shreveport with natural gas. On April 24, 1906, the well had a blowout that wrecked everything within several hundred feet of it. The gas that poured from the hole with a roar that was heard for 40 miles was ignited and the column of flames shot into the air to a height of several hundred feet.

The well burned steadily for two years with no indication of any decrease of its fuel supply; on the contrary, it seemed to gain in force. Its owners spent more than $25,000 in devising and putting into execution various schemes for extinguishing the flames and bringing the well under control. None was successful.

About two years ago it was decided to bore a number of relief wells in the vicinity of the burning well, with the view of lessening the gas pressure and possibly bringing the wild well under control. Several of these wells were bored and capped and then other oil-land owners threatened to institute injunction proceedings on the ground that the opening of the relief wells would cause a damaging waste and exhaustion of the pressure that is back-of the oil strata.

This threat of injunction caused a cessation of the work to relieve the gas supply of the burning well and nothing further was done until about two months ago, when several more wells were quietly bored. When everything was in readiness for the supreme test of the experiment all the relief wells were turned on a few days ago.

The gas poured from the relief wells in enormous quantities and the effect was soon apparent upon the burning well. The flames subsided rapidly, and in a short time only mounted to a height of a few feet from the mouth of the hole. Water was then pumped into the well and the blaze was quickly extinguished.

Another wild gasser, situated two and one-half miles from the big well, has been burning for nearly four years, and steps will now be taken to extinguish the blaze, by the same means adopted at the well that has just been brought under control.

LEPER FOUND IN HARTFORD.

Baltimore Physician Among Those Who Pronounce Case Incurable.

Hartford, Conn., May 27.—A delegation of visiting physicians, including a member of the staff of the Johns Hopkins hospital in Baltimore, decided positively today that David M. Leman, of 83 Bellevue street, who is 55 years old and has been in this country 25 years, has a pure case of leprosy and that there is no hope of his recovery.

The doctors say that Leman, who has a wife and three children, will die a slow, lingering death as the tissues and bones decay and that exhaustion may cause sudden death. He is the first known case of leprosy in Connecticut and the second in New England.

GOVERNMENT OF PHILIPPINES SHOULD BE INVESTIGATED

Manner in Which Affairs of Islands Have Been Conducted Most Suspicious—Petition For Investigation Now Before Congress.

Special to Telegram.

Washington, May 27.—"There should be a searching investigation by Congress into the conduct of affairs in the government of the Philippine Islands," declared Congressman Slayden of Texas, today, in discussing the petition he has presented to the House which shows that not only the Filipinos but many prominent Americans believe that Dean C. Worcester, a member of the Philippine commission, should be removed from office.

Commissioner Worcester has been on the Philippine payroll since 1899. As a commissioner he draws $5,000 annually. He is also secretary of the Interior for the Island government. For this service he draws an additional $10,500 annually. Before his advent into the ranks of Americans who have substantial employment with the Philippine government he was known as a "Zoo professor." In other words he was a naturalist and a college professor and was appointed a commissioner because he had given some study to the different races of the islands.

The petition filed by Representative Slayden was signed by many well-known editors, men and educators. They seek of Congress a sweeping inquiry into Commissioner Worcester's record, in particular, and a house-cleaning of the American officeholders in the islands in general.

The petition is now before the House committee on insular affairs and that committee is making preparations to formulate a resolution that will meet the demands of the petitioners. It is probable that the question of an inquiry into Commissioner Worcester's official conduct will come up before the June caucus of the Democrats of the House. At that time there will also be considered what disposition is to be made of the resolutions of Congressmen Cox, of Ohio, Sabath, of Illinois, and Cline, of Indiana, which have to do with the question of early independence of the Philippines.

Commissioner Worcester is not a stranger to official Washington. The last Congress remembers him very well as the man responsible for the sale of the friar lands to the former sugar trust officials. His conduct in this instance, after a lengthy hearing, was white-washed by the then Republican majority. The Democrats, now in the majority, gained a very unpleasant impression of the secretary of the interior of the islands, especially when it was shown that the practice was permitted of allowing government officials to have prospectors stake public lands for them. It was shown also that E. L. Worcester, a nephew of the secretary, was given heavy leases of public lands. Secretary Worcester, when this lease to his nephew was criticised by the Manila newspapers, had the legal department of the Philippine commission get busy and sent the editor and owners of one newspaper, one of the editors of which was a member of the Filipino assembly, to the penitentiary on the ground that they had libeled him. He even went so far as to make threats against Representative Martin, of Colorado, when the latter secured a congressional investigation of the friar lands sales.

The Philippine assembly unanimously passed resolutions in its last session censuring the official conduct of Mr. Worcester. This proves to the American people how mistaken have been the enthusiastic imperialists of the administration, who were predicting that the U. S. would have its best men as officials in the islands to conduct the affairs of the nation's wards. Democrats feel it is up to them to begin to consider the question of an early neutralized Philippine republic.

Matters of Opinion.

BOTH LIKELY TO GAIN STATEHOOD

New Mexico and Arizona Will Probably Be Admitted.

MUST ALTER CONSTITUTIONS.

Objectional Features of the Two Documents Will Be Voted on Separately. Missouri and Texas Make Claims to "Best Agricultural Regions," and Other States Are to Be Heard From.

By ARTHUR W. DUNN.
Washington, May 27.—(Special.)—Whatever shape the legislation relating to New Mexico and Arizona may take, it is believed that it will result in the admission of both of those states. No doubt both territories will fall in line with any suggestion which seems likely to gain statehood.

The features of the two constitutions that are objectionable to the Democrats in case of New Mexico and the Republicans in case of Arizona will be submitted separately to the people of those territories, and beyond question they will eliminate them from the constitutions. When the constitutions were voted upon as a whole the people had no choice but to accept them or endanger the admission.

By rejecting the features complained of speedy admission will follow, and there is no doubt that the changes will be accepted and two new states added to the Union.

Best Agricultural Region. Speaker Clark has often claimed that his district contained the "best agricultural region in the world." Congressman Booher of the same state says that "six counties in my district compose the best agricultural region in the world." Senator Bailey asserted at the tariff hearings that a certain section of Texas was the "best agricultural region in the world." The returns are not all in, but it is expected that other states have the same "best agricultural region in the world." It would be interesting to have them all grouped and tabulated.

Economy in Ice Water. In every one of the rooms of the house office building is a spigot marked "Ice Water." Time was when that spigot connected with a plant which turned out ice water, but the weary traveler about the office building at the present time finds the faucet gives forth water so warm that it is sickening. He is told that there is no longer ice water in the tank connecting with that spigot since the Democrats came into power.

As a matter of economy the supply of ice water was cut off. In place of this cold water in every room there is placed in each corridor one water cooler, and thirsty members and their clerks now go out in the hall when they want a cool drink.

"Stars and Bars." The average orator when he "soars the eagle" generally gets off something in regard to the "glorious old flag," the "stars and stripes" or something that means our present flag. But it remained for Congressman Gudgeon of North Carolina to put in his speech a high down compliment to the "stars and bars," which is a pet name for the flag of the Confederacy. The "stars and bars" are always a prominent feature of every Confederate reunion.

Effect of the Hearings. "I am asking for information," said John Sharp Williams plaintively to a man who was talking to the finance committee. "I do not know much about anything," continued the Mississippi senator sarcastically, "and since these hearings I know less than I ever did."

"Obscurities Under Epaullets." Congressman Slayden of Texas is chairman of the committee on library, and a part of his duty is to pass upon art works and pictures, including the statues which have been scattered about Washington without much regard to real art work.

"As long as I am chairman of this committee," remarked Slayden one day, "there will be no more obscurities under epaullets erected in the public places in this city. There are more alleged soldiers standing about than enough." He did not specify just whom he meant. Then a member of his committee remarked that the career of Andrew Jackson in front of the White House had every other statue in the capital distanced as a monstrosity.

"We can't disturb 'Old Hickory,'" said the Texan. And he is right. The last time it was tried it raised a mighty rumpus in congress.

"Judge" Booher. "Many of my friends on the Democratic side called me 'Judge,' but I do not know why," remarked Congressman Booher of Missouri. He might have said that every other man was called "Judge" on the Democratic side. "I was never a judge in my life," continued Booher, "except judge of a horse race. And I was a mighty good judge of a horse race. I have no doubt that a man who is a good judge of a horse race would make a good judge of a court." When the laugh subsided he went on with his argument.

Taking Long Chances.

A hitherto youth was explaining to a friend of the family about the preparations that were being made to welcome home a brother who had been away for some time.

"Aren't you making yourself rather conspicuous under the circumstances?" asked the friend in a solicitous tone of voice.

"Why shouldn't I?"

"I should think you would keep in the background as much as possible."

"Why?"

"They are going to kill the fatted calf, you say."

"Sure thing."

"They might get you by mistake."

The Man Who Works For You

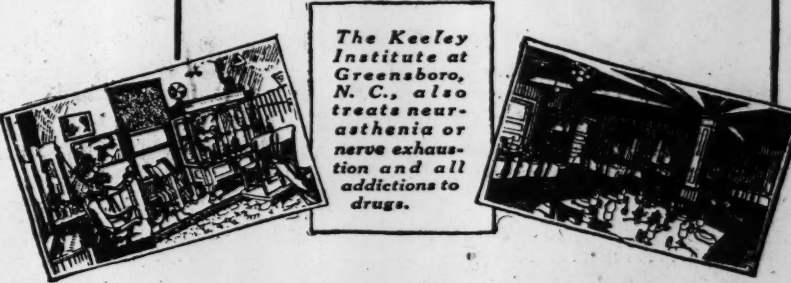

PERHAPS at one time he was one of your most trusted employees, but now—he's unreliable—he drinks. And he has gone from bad to worse until you have finally decided to discharge him.

Now here is a business proposition. Drinking is a disease and requires scientific treatment. Four weeks of treatment at the Keeley Institute at Greensboro, N. C., will take away that man's appetite for liquor. It will make him the same man he was before he started drinking—it will restore his old time ability.

There is a distinctiveness about our treatment—there is a personality behind it that builds up the moral character of the patient. A personality that gives him new ideals and new ambitions. That's why the Keeley Institute at Greensboro, N. C., has been so eminently successful. The thousands of patients whom we have cured will attest that fact.

Don't hesitate. Send that man to us. It is a business investment—an investment that will save you the time, trouble and expense of training up a new man. Write to us to-day for our book. It will give you interesting data regarding the many absolute cures we have effected.

SPARTANBURG AND WINSTON PLAY HERE THIS WEEK

Musicians Play First Half of Week And Twins Here Last Three Days.

The Patriots will be at home all next week. The first three days the Spartans will be here and Doyle's men expect to get even with the Musicians for the way they were treated when in Spartanburg Wednesday and Thursday. The first game will be played at Cone Park Monday afternoon at 4:30.

Thursday Clancy will bring his incorrigible Twins here for three games. Good crowds are expected at these games, for the reason that the United Commercial Travelers will be here the last of the week, and also on account of the close race between the Patriots and Twins.

Another game of interest will be played here this week. Reference is made to the game at Cone Park Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock between a team of South Carolina traveling men and another team to be made up of Tar Heel members of the association.

HORNETS TAKE CLOSE GAME FROM SPINNERS

Greenville, May 27.—Two errors, two sacrifices, three clean hits and one scratch hit, with a bad decision of the umpire gave the Hornets six runs in the first inning this afternoon. Two hits and a stolen base netted one in the second but both teams tightened up then until the sixth when a pass, an error and a single gave the Spinners their first run. Two walks, an error a sacrifice and three hits, one a home run by Pitcher Griffin almost tied the score in the last. Greenville's fielding was fine and backed up Griffin's sore arm well.

Score by innings: R. H. E.
Charlotte . . . 6 10 000 000—7 10 2
Greenville . . . 000 001 005—6 7 2
Batteries—Griffin and Kite; Bauswine and Malcombson. Umpire, Nugent.

ELECTRICIANS SHORT CIRCUITED DURING THE THIRD FRAME

Anderson, May 25.—Anderson got her only runs in the first inning before Eldridge had warmed up and was unable to get a man across after that. Anderson went up in the third when five hits with two fielder's choices gave the visitors five tallies. The leaders of the league continue to strengthen their hold on first place. Eight of the batters are left-hand batters and they work hard on a right handed pitcher. A double play by each team added spice to the game.

Greensboro . . . 115 001 001—9 12 2
Anderson . . . 200 000 000—2 6 2

Stewart, of Donaldson, got on each time he came up and scored two runs and two hits. Belk did good work on short for Wilson. Donaldson fielded without an error.

MUSICIANS DROP ANOTHER GAME TO CLANCY'S TWINS

Winston-Salem, May 27.—The locals made it five straight this week by taking a slow loose game from Spartanburg this afternoon by the score of 10 to 6. Both Hill and Boyle were ineffective and given ragged support, Hill particularly so. Laval who relieved Hill was unable to stop the scoring.

Three balls were hit over the fence, Schumaker hitting one over in the first with two men on bases. Wagner's baserunning and the fielding of Dubbs, Clancy and Gates saved the game from being entirely without interest. Gates made two catches of fouls up against the grandstand that were great. Clancy made a great running catch of a short drive behind third. The play of the Twin infield was as usual about all that could be desired. The Spartanburg pitching staff looks weak, and the Twins stand badly in need of an extra pitcher.

Score by innings: R. H. E.
Spartanburg . . . 200 012 100—6 9 5
Winston-Salem . . . 300 212 203—10 10 2

WOLGAST STILL HOLDS WORLD'S CHAMPIONSHIP

Special to Telegram.
San Francisco, Cal., May 27.—Ad Wolgast still holds the world's light weight championship, having won the contest from Frankie Burns, of Oakland, at the Eighth Street Stadium this afternoon. Wolgast beat Burns so badly that Jack Perkins, Burns' manager, threw the towel into the ring when the bell rang for the commencement of the 17th round. The gate money probably amounted to $19,000. Wolgast's agreement called for $7,500, win lose or draw. Burns gets 20 per cent. of the gross gate receipts. Owen Moran, the English champion who boxes against Wolgast on July 4, was a spectator during the bout.

Kid Williams Won.
Special to Telegram.
Baltimore, Md., May 27.—Kid Williams, the bantam weight champion of the South got the decision over Kid Murphy, of New York, this afternoon. The bout lasted for fifteen rounds.

Cornell Beat Harvard.

Ithica, N. Y., May 27.—Cornell Varsity crew beat the Harvard crew two and one half lengths this afternoon. The time of the winner was 10:56.

DIAMOND DUST

Where They Play.
Spartanburg at Greensboro.
Winston at Charlotte.
Anderson at Greenville.

Here's hoping the Hornets will have better luck the first half of the week.

Winston seems determined to push Greensboro for top position.

Let's take all three from the Musicians.

Corwin will soon be back at short.

Morrissey or Walters tomorrow.

Game called at 4:30 each afternoon.

Says the Charlotte Chronicle: Don't get the idea into your noodle that "Deacon" Morrissey is a missionary evangelist just because he passes the plate.

Cross don't want no pennant because he ain't got no flag pole to fly it from.—Charlotte Chronicle.

The Hornets are now working subtraction in the baseball arithmetic.—Charlotte Chronicle.

Of the three graces, faith hope and charity, we have had all three for the home team. First we had faith in them, then hope that they would win another game sometime, and now it's charity to keep quiet and not say what we think about it.—Charlotte Chronicle.
